

Sometimes at Night

Sometimes at night
I feel just like the cat like I've been sleeping all day and now I'm awake

and if somebody doesn't play with me I'm going to start clawing the furniture

If you don't vigorously scratch my ass and call me a good kitty Then ten minutes after you go to sleep
I'm gonna jump on your crotch

Then I'm gonna run through the house as fast as I can slide across the floor crash into things jump up on the table and the counter and scatter all your organized stuff all over the place

Oh yes
I will be a bad kitty
A very, very bad kitty

So, do yourself a favor and love me
Now!
